FEBRUARY BULLETIN

Book Talk with Lita Judge!

Children's picture books have always been a favorite here at the East Kingston Public Library. Lita Judge will be doing a virtual presentation over Zoom for us on Thursday, February 25th, at 2pm. Sign up is required. Email ekpublib@comcast.net to get the Zoom link.

She will express how a shy, quiet kid with dyslexia who had an interest in animals and dinosaurs becomes a book author and illustrator. She writes "My goal is to inspire all kids, not just future authors and artists, to follow their dreams, build confidence with their work, and to invest in their own creative future."

Wildlife Habitats and Corridors in EK

On Tuesday, February 9th at 7pm via Zoom, join the EK Conservation Commission and the The Nature's Conservatory NH for a program about the wildlife in our backyard. Rural East Kingston is home to much wildlife -- from turtles to fox and fisher. A new landmark report and East Kingston map detail:

- Where are the priority wildlife areas?
- Significant wildlife corridors?
- How can we maintain these corridors -- vital to wildlife survival?

Sign up is required. Please email ekpublib@comcast.net or visit our website to sign up.
