Book Clubs

In January, we welcome back our monthly EK Book club. On January 27th, at 7pm, we will be hosting our first virtual book club and discussing Such a Fun Age by Kelly Reid. Sign up is required.

We will also be starting a new bookclub for children! This virtual book club, perfect for grades 3-6, will be featuring books from the Great Stone Face Book Awards. Our first book will be Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library by Chris Grabenstein, and will be over Zoom on January 23rd, at 1pm. Sign up is required.

Local Author Workshop

On January 28th, at 4:30pm, local author/illustrator Marek Bennett will be teaching a virtual comic workshop! This workshop will teach participants about visual storytelling and cartooning. While this program is geared towards elementary and middle school aged children, anyone is welcome to participate. Each sign up also comes with a kit of materials needed to create your own masterpiece.

SIGN UP IS REQUIRED. Call or email the library for more information.

Curbside Pickup

As we go deeper into the winter season, we want to encourage curbside pickup to help stop the spread of the COVID-19 virus. Curbside is easy, contactless pickup, done at the front door of the library. You can call/email your specific request, or ask us for a little help and we'll pick some selections that we think you would enjoy. If you don't feel comfortable coming in the library to browse (by appointment!), curbside pickup is the next best thing. Try it out today! Call (603) 642-8333 or email at ekpublib@comcast.net.
