The Last Traverse with Ty Gagne

Join us in welcome local author, Ty Gagne. Ty will be presenting his new book, The Last Traverse, on March 25th at 7pm. Visit www.eastkingstonlibrary.org to sign up.

"On a mountain somewhere above treeline, in some of the coldest and worst winter conditions imaginable, two men lie unconscious in the snow as explosive winds batter the nearby summits. In The Last Traverse; Tragedy and Resilience in the Winter Whites, Ty Gagne masterfully lays out the events that led up to an epic and legendary rescue attempt in severe and dangerous winter conditions in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. More than a cautionary tale, it is a tribute to all the volunteers and professionals who willingly put themselves in harm's way to save lives. This is a must read for anyone who hikes the Whites" (The Last Traverse, Gagne 2020).

Kids Take and Make - Pet Cacti!

Our children's program this month will be a passive take and make. This month, the kits will include the materials to make a pet cactus! The link to sign up for the kit is available on our website, or you can call/email the library to add your child to the list. Kits will be ready to be picked up by March 5th.

Introducing

brainfuse

Coming March 2021...

Brainfuse is an online tutoring service mainly geared towards grades K-12. That said, they offer help for higher education too, as well as resume services and job help. With many jobs and schools online during this pandemic, Brainfuse is the perfect piece of technology to help us along. The help can come through a chat function, email, or live video chats.

Stay tuned for more announcements!
