Candidates

While there will be no candidate's night this year, the Town Newsletter has reached out to all the candidates on the ballot. You can read the responses on March's issue of the EK Edition. Find it virtually at eastkingstonlibrary.org/community

NH Healthcare Workers for Climate Action

On March 15th at 7pm via Zoom, we will be hosting New Hampshire Healthcare Workers for Climate Change.

This program centers around the impact of climate change on human health, and what we can do about it. Topics include; the science of climate change, how climate change affects human health, with a special focus on health effects in NH, and solutions. Registration is required for this program. If you'd like to sign up, please head to our website, call, or email the library!

DISCOVER DIY: Green Cleaning Supplies

We're bringing back DISCOVER DIY! For March, to go along with the NH Healthcare Workers for Climate Action, we're making our own Green DIY Cleaners for a greener and cleaner living.

This program will be IN PERSON, and there is limited space available. If you would like to sign up, please head to our website, call, or email to add your name to the list.

Mystery Bag Art Challenge

The contest for our Mystery Bag Art Challenge will be held virtually on our website. Voting starts on March 7th and goes until March 12th. Anyone can vote and the winner will receive a prize!
