

A DAY AT THE BEACH

The _____ family had just gotten to the beach when (last name)
they heard cries of distress coming from a woman near them.

Mr. _____ jumped to his feet and went to see what (last name)
was the matter. Mrs. _____ and _____ and (last name) (boy name)
_____, the twins, weren't far behind.
(girl name)

Quite a crowd was forming around the distressed woman. Mr.

_____ 's eyes followed the pointing finger of the (last name)
shrieking woman. On her foot, she saw the largest pile of _____. Mrs. Sullivan almost fainted. She had never (something gross)
seen anything so _____. The twins began to (adjective)
_____ because they, too, were truly _____.
(verb) (feeling)

Mr. _____ was not very _____ because he (last name) (feeling) was afraid of _____, but he was too embarrassed to (something gross)
tell everyone. All eyes were upon him as he reached out his _____ and _____ pushed the disgusting (body part) (adverb)
thing off the woman's foot. Everyone cheered for Mr. Sullivan.
He became the hero of the day. The relieved woman treated the whole Sullivan family to _____.
(cool treat)